A SPORTS & SPIRITUALITY PRESENTATION FOR PARENTS, COACHES, ATHLETIC DIRECTORS, PRINCIPALS, HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH, & REFEREES

FR. MARK-DAVID JANUS, CSP, PHD,
WILL BE PRESENTING "THE SPIRITUALITY OF SPORT"

"Americans have an intuitive relationship between sports and spirituality.

Professional teams often have chaplains, colleges have the Intervarsity Fellowship of Christian athletes, athletes often thank Jesus for their success, kneel in prayer after victory, and the European Soccer player of the year, the famous Kaka, wears shoes that say, "I belong to Jesus." For that matter, St. Paul himself used analogies to racing and boxing in his letters." Fr. Mark-David presents thoughts on a Catholic approach to spirituality in personal and team sports.

Please join us for another intriguing afternoon in the "Sports & Spirituality Series", sponsored by GRACEAC, St. Stephen, St. Thomas, Immaculate Heart of Mary, St. John Vianney, and St. Paul the Apostle Parish Youth Ministries.

This event is free, and there will be sports-related books & DVDs available for sale to help offset the cost of the series.
